It was a very valuable conference experience. I was pleased to have the opportunity to present and discuss our technology with peers in the field, which led to several new and meaningful engagements. The meeting also offered a strong scientific programme, and it was inspiring to hear high-quality work from other groups. Beyond the content itself, the conference was especially useful for building new connections and opening the door to potential future collaborations.

About the Event

Biopharma APAC Confex 2027 brings six co-located conferences under one roof at the Sands Expo & Convention Centre, Singapore, on 23–24 March 2027: Biologics Manufacturing Asia, ADC Asia Congress, Cell & Gene Therapy World Asia, Clinical Trials Festival Asia, Oligos & Peptides World Asia and Biosupply Chain Asia. One registration, one exhibition floor, and one decision-making community across the modalities reshaping the region's biopharma pipeline.

Each programme runs its own two-day agenda, so delegates can go deep in their own field and still move freely between the others — the conversations between the programmes are the point of co-locating them. Together the six agendas span process development and biomanufacturing, antibody–drug conjugates, cell and gene therapies, clinical trial design and execution, oligonucleotide and peptide therapeutics, and the supply chain that carries all of them to patients.

WHAT WE'LL COVER

Key Themes

Biologics Manufacturing

Upstream and downstream process development, CMC, analytics and characterisation, formulation, facility engineering and digital manufacturing — from robust cell lines to real-time release.

Antibody–Drug Conjugates

Discovery and next-generation targeting, pre-clinical translation, formulation and stability, and the safety–efficacy balance that decides whether an ADC reaches patients.

Cell & Gene Therapy

CAR-T, gene editing and emerging modalities; vector engineering, delivery and analytics; scale-up, tech transfer and CMC readiness; and the regulatory and market-access routes to commercialisation.

Clinical Trials

APAC trial harmonisation and emerging markets, patient-centric and decentralised designs, digital endpoints and wearables, AI in trial execution, and the logistics behind a multi-country study.

Oligos & Peptides

The RNA and oligonucleotide landscape in APAC, peptide therapeutics, delivery technologies and precision tissue targeting, and manufacturing, CMC and commercial scale-up.

Biopharma Supply Chain

Resilient and future-ready cold chain, next-generation logistics, smart packaging and traceability, sustainability in cold and ambient chains, and GxP compliance across Asian markets.
